

HENNGE

How to Modify the HENNGE Access Control Access Policy

System

- Domain Settings
- Connected Services
- Access Log
- Batch Registration Log
- OAuth Client Settings
- Sync Log

User

- Users
- Access Policy Group

Secure Browser

- Pending Requests
- Devices
- App Policy Groups

Device Certificate

- Certificate Operations
- Certificates

hacadmin@365cons004.hdetrial.jp | LOGOUT

Refresh

50 100 1000 per page

Management

Jo Test 13 0

Add New Access Policy Group

Display Name :

Cookie Lifespan hour(s)

Condition to allow access

Condition not to require OTP

Condition to change OTP secret

Condition to change OTP notification email

Condition to access to secure browser control panel

Condition to allow users to change unread email notification settings

Select the Access Policy that you wish to add HENNGE Device Certificate into in the HENNGE Access Control Admin Console.

Select the Access Policy in the HENNGE Access Control that you wish to enable HENNGE Device

Display Name : DEFAULT

Cookie Lifespan ? 168 hour(s)

Condition to allow access ? Enable ip4:111.111.111.111 or ip4:222.222.222.222 or device_cert:any

Condition not to require OTP ? Disable

Condition to change OTP secret ? Enable false

Condition to allow access ? Enable ip4:111.111.111.111 or ip4:222.222.222.222 or device_cert:any

Condition to change OTP notification email ? Enable false

Condition not to require OTP ? Disable

Condition to access to secure browser control panel ? Disable

Condition to allow users to change unread email notification settings ? Disable

In the "Condition to allow Access" or in the "Condition not to require OTP", please add "or device_cert:any" in order to enable Device Certificate into the Access Policy.

Adding "or device_cert:any into the Access Policy which HENNGE Device Certificate needs to be enabled.